(9) To maintain improvements in good repair and make repairs required by the Government, operate the property in a sound and bushel-like manner, comply with such farm conservation practices and farm and home management plans as the Government from time to time may prescribe, and not to abandon the property, or cause or permit waste, lessening or impairment of the security created hereby, or without the written consent of the Government, cut, remove, or lease any timber, gravel, oil, gas, coal, or other minerals except as may be necessary for ordinary domestic purposes.

(10) To comply with all laws, ordinances, and regulations affecting the property.

(11) To pay or reimburse the Government for expenses reasonably necessary of incidental to the protection of the land and property hereof and to the enforcement of the compliance with the provisions hereof and of the note and any supplemental agreement whether before or after default, including but not limited to costs of evidence of title to an survey of the property, costs of recording this and other instruments, attorney's fees, trustee's fees, court costs, and expenses of advertising, selling, and conveying the property.

(12) Neither the property nor any portion thereof or interest therein shall be leased, assigned, sold, transferred, or encumbered, voluntarily or otherwise, without the written consent of the Government. The Government shall have the sole and exclusive rights as mortgagor hereunder, including but not limited to the power to grant consents, partial releases, subordinations, and satisfaction, and no assignee hereof shall have any right, title or interest in or to the land or any benefits hereof.

(13) At all reasonable times the Government and its agents may inspect the property to ascertain whether the covenants and agreements contained herein or in any supplemental agreement are being performed.

(14) The Government may extend and defer the maturity of and renew and restructure the debt evidenced by the note or any indebtedness to the Government secured hereby, release from liability to the Government any party liable thereon, release portions of the property and subordinate the lien hereof, and waive any other rights hereunder, without affecting the senior priority hereof or the liability of the Government or Borrower or any other party for payment of the note or indebtedness secured hereby except as specified by the Government in writing.

(15) If at any time it shall appear to the Government that Borrower may be able to obtain a loan from a production credit association, a Federal land bank, or other responsible cooperative or private credit source, at reasonable rates and terms for loans for similar purposes and periods of time, Borrower will upon the Government's request apply for and accept such loan in sufficient amount to pay the note and any indebtedness secured hereby and to pay for any stock necessary to be purchased in a cooperative lending agency in connection with such loan.

(16) Default agreement shall be made default under any other real estate or under any personal property or other security instrument held or issued by the Government and executed or assumed by Borrower, and default under any such other security instrument shall constitute default hereunder.

(17) SHOULD DEBTOR die or the performance or discharge of any obligation in this instrument be secured by this instrument, and should any one of the parties named as Borrower die or be declared incompetent, a bankrupt, or an insolvent, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the Government at its option, with or without notice, may (a) declare the entire amount unpaid under the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereby secured immediately due and payable, (b) for the account of Borrower incur and pay reasonable expenses for repair or maintenance of and take possession of, operate or rent the property, (c) upon application by and production of this instrument, without notice of hearing or aid application, have a receiver appointed for the property, with the usual powers of receivers in like cases, (d) foreclose this instrument as provided herein or by law, and (e) enforce any and all other rights and remedies provided herein or by present or future law.

(18) The proceeds of forced sale shall be applied in the following order to the payment of the note and expenses incident thereto, including, or comprising the amounts hereof, the amounts due secured by law or a competent court to be so paid, (a) the debt evidenced by the note and all indebtedness to the Government secured hereby, (b) deficiency items, taxes and required by law or a competent court to be so paid, (c) at the Government's option, other indebtedness of Borrower owing or accrued to the Government, and (d) any balance to be so paid, (e) at the Government's option, other indebtedness of all other parts of the property. The Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a stranger to Borrower. At forced sale or other sale of all or any part of the property, the Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a stranger to Borrower. At forced sale or other sale of all or any part of the property, the Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a stranger to the Government, at the order prescribed above.

(19) Borrower agrees that the Government will not be bound by any present or future State law, or providing for valuation appraisal, homestead or exemption of the property, or prohibiting maintenance of an action for a deficiency judgment or limiting the amount thereof or on the time within which such action may be brought, nor prescribing any other statute of limitations, (d) disallowing any rights of redemption or possession following any forced sale or terminating the conditions which the Government may by regulation impose, including the interest rate it may charge, as a condition of applying for a transfer of the property to a new Borrower. Borrower expressly waives the benefit of any such State law. Borrower hereby relinquishes, waives, and conveys all rights, including the right to demand or receive, defense, answer, and cross-complaint.

(20) If any part of the loan for which this instrument is given shall be used to finance the purchase, construction or repair of property to be used as an owner-occupied dwelling thereon called "the dwelling," and if Borrower intends to sell or rent the dwelling and has obtained the Government's consent to do so, (a) neither Borrower nor anyone authorized to act for him, will, after receipt of a bona fide offer, refuse to accept the sale or rental of the dwelling or will otherwise make unavailable or deny the dwelling to anyone because of race, color, religion, national origin, and (b) Borrower renounces as illegal and hereby disclaims and will not attempt with or attempt to enforce any restrictive covenants on dwelling relating to race, color, religion, sex, or national origin.

(21) This instrument shall be subject to the present regulations of the Farmers Home Administration, and to its future regulations not inconsistent with the express provisions hereof.

(22) Notices given hereunder shall be sent by certified mail, unless otherwise required by law, addressed, unless and until some other address is designated in a notice so given, in the case of the Government to Farmers Home Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, at Columbia, South Carolina, 29201, and in the case of Borrower to him at the address shown in the Farmers Home Administration Finance Office records which is usually, will be the same as the post office address shown above.

(23) If any provision of this instrument or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity will not affect other provisions or applications of the instrument which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end the provisions hereof are declared to be severable.
