It is also important to note that the results of the study were not statistically significant.

Any bill relating to the sale, lease or transfer of real property shall, before being referred to the Legislature, provide for the filing of the bill at the department of state and kept in escrow under the name of the bill. The Legislature shall direct a bill to be filed in escrow if it contains a provision that $2,000 or more per acre be paid within 180 days in arrears to the state or county for the payment of delinquent taxes.

5. As the total of payments made by the Mortgagor under (b) of paragraph 2 preceding shall exceed the amount of payments actually made by the Mortgagor for taxes or assessments or insurance premiums, as the case may be, such excess, if the Mortgagor consent, at the option of the Mortgagor, shall be treated as subsequent payments to be made by the Mortgagor, or deducted by the Mortgagor. However, the amounts payments made by the Mortgagor under (b) of paragraph 2 preceding shall not be sufficient to pay taxes and assessments and insurance premiums when due, then the same shall become due and payable, then the Mortgagor shall pay to the Mortgagor any amount necessary to make up the deficiency, or before the date when payment of such taxes, assessments or insurance premiums shall be due. If at any time the Mortgagor shall tender to the Mortgagor, in accordance with the provisions of the note or trust hereby, full payment of the sum indebtedness represented thereby, the Mortgagor shall, in computing the amount of such indebtedness credit to the amount of the Mortgagor all payments made under the provisions of (a) of paragraph 2 heretofore which the Mortgagor has not become obligated to pay to the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development and any balance remaining in the funds accumulated under the provisions of (b) of paragraph 2 heretofore. If there shall be a default under any of the provisions of the mortgagor resulting in a public sale of the premises covered hereby, or if the property is otherwise disposed after default the Mortgagor shall apply, at the time of the commencement of such proceedings, or at the time the property is otherwise acquired, the balance then remaining in the funds accumulated under (b) of paragraph 2 preceding, or such as is not the amount of principal then remaining unpaid under the note or trust hereby, and in all proceedings arising out of such an event, shall have been made under (a) of paragraph 2.

4 That he will pay all taxes, assessments, and other governmental or municipal charges, fines, costs, expenses, or which may be due or become due by him, and in default thereof the Mortgagor may pay the same, and that he will promptly deliver the same to the Agent of the Mortgagor. If the Mortgagor fails to make any payment or deposit required by the terms of the Agreement, the Agent, or his agents, or the trustee, may give the notice of default and demand payment of the amount then due under the above-quoted Article 4, the date of giving such notice shall be deemed to be the "Default Date".

• That he will keep the information private and confidential until such time as they are free and willing to speak of personal family history that may be publicly heard and to do so openly.

In addition to the above, the following shall be provided:

In 1970, the government of Canada passed the Canadian Environmental Protection Act (CEPA), which required the Minister of the Environment to evaluate and then prohibit or restrict the importation of substances that were considered to be dangerous to the environment. The first group of substances prohibited under CEPA was the polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs). These substances were禁制 by the Government of Canada and have been prohibited in Canada since 1972. The following is a brief history of the PCB ban in Canada.
