However, should Mortgagors be in default hereunder upon the happening of any of the following events or conditions, namely: (i) default in the payment of any amount due under the Promissory Note secured hereby, or failure to comply with any of the terms, conditions or covenants contained in this Mortgage, or the Promissory Note, or in any Security Agreement also securing said Promissory Note; (ii) loss, substantial damage to, destruction or waste to the land and premises, other than normal wear and tear (except any casualty loss substantially covered by insurance in accordance with the terms of this Mortgage), or cancellation by the insurer of any such required insurance prior to the expiration thereof; (iii) any levy, seizure, distraint or attachment of or on the land and premises, or insolvency, appointment of a receiver of any part of the property of, assignment for the benefit of creditors by, or the commencement of any proceeding under any bankruptcy or insolvency laws by or against Mortgagors which is not dismissed within 10 days of the filing of the original petition therein; and (iv) death of any Mortgagor obligated hereunder, then and in any of such events, the Promissory Note shall, at the option of the Mortgagee, become at once due and payable, regardless of the maturity date thereof. The proceeds of said sale shall be applied, first to the expense of advertising, selling and conveying said land and premises, including a reasonable attorneys' fee and the cost of preparing any evidence of title in connection with such sale; second, to the payment of any amounts that may have been expended, or that are then necessary to expend, in paying any insurance, taxes, or encumbrances on said land and premises; third, to the payment of the Promissory Note and interest thereon secured hereby; and finally, the balance, if any, shall be paid to the Mortgagors. Mortgagors shall be liable for any deficiency remaining after the sale of the premises, and application of the proceeds of said sale as aforesaid, together with interest theron at the same rate as specified in the Promissory Note secured hereby. The Mortgagors further agree that Mortgagee, its legal representative or assigns, shall have the right to bid and purchase in the event of a sale hereunder, and that the Mortgagors shall surrender possession of the hereinabove described land and premises to the purchaser immediately after said sale, in the event such possession has not previously been surrendered by the Mortgagors.
