BY: John O. Miller Jr.

Together with all and singular rights, members, hereditaments, and appurtenances to the same belonging, now or hereafter attached, connected, or joined thereto in any manner, it being the intention of the parties hereto that all such fixtures and equipment, other than the usual instruments of trade, be considered a part of the real estate.

WITNESS: Elizabelle N. Jones

I further covenant and agree to defend all and singular the said premises unto the Mortgagee, its heirs, successors and assigns, forever.
 The Mortgagee covenants that it is lawfully seized of the premises hereinabove described in fee simple absolute, that it has full right and is lawfully authorized to sell, convey or encumber the same, and that the premises are free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except as herein specifically stated otherwise in full.

This is a first mortgage, second to none.

The Mortgagee further covenants to warrant and forever defend all and singular the said premises unto the Mortgagee forever, from and against the Mortgagee and all persons whomsoever lawfully claiming the same in any part thereof.

The Mortgagee further covenants and agrees as follows:

(1) That this mortgage shall secure the Mortgagee for such further sums as may be advanced hereafter, at the option of the Mortgagee, for the payment of taxes, insurance premiums, public assessments, repairs or other purposes pursuant to the covenants herein. This mortgage shall also secure the Mortgagee for any further sum, advances, redemptions or credits that may be made hereafter to the Mortgagee by the Mortgagee as long as the total indebtedness thus secured does not exceed the original amount shown on the face hereof. All sums so advanced shall bear interest at the same rate as the mortgage debt and shall be payable on demand of the Mortgagee unless otherwise provided in writing.

(2) That it will keep the improvements now existing or hereafter erected on the mortgaged property insured as may be required from time to time by the Mortgagee against loss by fire and any other hazard specified by Mortgagee, in an amount and less than the mortgage debt, in such amounts as may be required by the Mortgagee, and in amounts acceptable to it, and that all such policies and schedules thereof shall be held by the Mortgagee, and have attached thereto less payable claims in favor of, and on items acceptable to the Mortgagee, and that it will pay all premiums thereon when due, and that it does hereby assign to the Mortgagee the proceeds of any policy insuring the mortgaged premises and does hereby authorise each insurance company contracted to make payment for a loss directly to the Mortgagee, to the extent of the balance owing on the Mortgagor's debt, whether due or not.

(3) That it will keep all improvements now existing or hereafter erected on the mortgaged property insured in good repair, and, in the case of a construction loan, that it will continue construction until completion without interruption, and should it fail to do so, the Mortgagee may, at its option, enter upon the premises, make whatever repairs are necessary, including the completion of any construction work underway, and charge the expenses for such repairs or the completion of such construction to the mortgage debt.

(4) That it will pay, when due, all taxes, public assessments, and other governmental or municipal charges, fines or other impositions against the mortgaged premises. That it will comply with all governmental and municipal laws and regulations affecting the mortgaged premises.

(5) That it hereby assigns all rents, issues and profits of the mortgaged premises from and after any default hereunder, and agrees that, should legal proceedings be instituted pursuant to this instrument, any judge having jurisdiction may, at Chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver of the mortgaged premises, with full authority to take possession of the mortgaged premises and collect the rents, issues and profits, including a reasonable amount to be fixed by the Court in the event said premises are occupied by the mortgagor and after deducting all charges and expenses attending such proceeding and the execution of its trust as receiver, shall apply the residue of the rents, the issues and profits toward the payment of the debt so void hereby.
