

test the mineral content under the surface of the property, provided the same is done in a good, workmanlike manner and provided said test holes are refilled and no substantial damage is done to the existing crops.

The right, privilege and option is hereby granted the purchaser to extend this option for an additional period of two (2) months, provided the purchaser gives to the sellers ten (10) days' written notice of its desire to extend said option and pays to the sellers the sum of One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars cash. In the event this option is extended the said additional two months' period, the additional One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars shall not be credited on the purchase price of said property, but the original One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars paid by the purchaser shall be credited on the purchase price of said option, whether the same is exercised during the original period or the additional two months' extended period.

The consideration hereinabove set forth is divided as follows:

Seventy-five ($75.00) Dollars to L. S. Flanagan.

Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars to J. A. Henry, as Agent and Attorney for Estelle D. McHugh.

It is understood and agreed that if the Court does not approve the conveyance of her one-fourth interest under the terms of this option, the original Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars will be returned by J. A. Henry, as Agent and Attorney for Estelle D. McHugh, to the purchaser and the additional Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars of the consideration paid for the extension of this option shall also be returned by him to the purchaser in the event the sale of the one-fourth interest of Estelle D. McHugh is not approved.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The Sellers have hereunto set their hands and seals and the Purchaser has caused its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and these presents to be subscribed by its duly authorized officers on this the 22nd day of August, 1952.
