COUNTY OF GREENVILLE

PERSONALLY appeared before me S. C. Bradley who upon being duly sworn deposes and says that he lives on Woodruff Road across from the property known as the Albert H. Godfrey homeplace. That he has lived there for many years and knew Albert H. Godfrey and his family very well. That Albert H. Godfrey died March 2, 1932, leaving surviving him his widow, Emily Lou Godfrey, and 13 children, namely: James W. Godfrey; I. L. Godfrey; W. H. Godfrey; Ralph Godfrey; Ollie Godfrey (known also as Harley Godfrey); David A. Godfrey; Earl Godfrey; Addie Godfrey Holcombe; Lula Fleming; Alice Godfrey Edge; Gladys Brown; Kate Godfrey and Mary Godfrey (who later married an Austin, who died; she subsequently remarried a Henderson). That after the death of Albert H. Godfrey and before the death of his widow, Emily Lou Godfrey, three of his children died, namely: James W. Godfrey, who left surviving him, his son, James Godfrey; I. L. Godfrey, who left surviving him a daughter, Azilee (Azalee) G. Carson; and Kate Godfrey, who left surviving her, her mother, brothers, and sisters. That Emily Lou Godfrey died October 2, 1956, leaving surviving her, her children, Wade Godfrey (W. H. Godfrey); Addie Holcombe; Lula Fleming; Alice Edge; Ralph Godfrey; Gladys Brown; Harley Godfrey; David Godfrey; Earl Godfrey; and Mary Godfrey Austin (now Mary Henderson); and two grandchildren, James Godfrey and Azilee Carson. That the persons who signed the deed to the Albert H. Godfrey property to Grady Yeargin were all of the living takers and beneficiaries under the will of Albert H. Godfrey.

Sworn to before me this the 8 day of November, 1960.
