

January 1, 1962, said trustees or their survivor is authorized and directed to make said conveyance immediately thereafter rather than waiting until January 1, 1962.

It is not my intention that this gift be complete during the calendar year 1961 or during my lifetime, whichever the case may be and therefore, I specifically reserve unto me the right at any time prior to my death or prior to January 1, 1962, whichever event occurs sooner, to change any or all of the above mentioned individuals who have been designated to acquire this property by gift or to change the share that any of said persons might receive. Should I desire to exercise this right, I will do so by appropriate instrument and record the same in the Book of Deeds in the R. M. C. Office for Greenville County, South Carolina. In the event I do not exercise this right prior to my death, or before January 1, 1962, my instructions are to be carried out as aforesaid.
