

JUL 19 11 59 AM 1931

CLERK OF COURT

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA)
) A F F I D A V I T
COUNTY OF GREENVILLE)

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Ada Findley Honour, who being first duly sworn, says that E. C. Honour, husband of deponent, died intestate May 3, 1960 and that deponent was duly appointed administratrix of his estate and was discharged as such August 31, 1962, all of which will appear in Apartment 733, File 19 in the office of the Probate Court for Greenville County.

That E. C. Honour formerly operated Honour Coal Company, a corporation, chartered under the laws of the State of South Carolina, the charter having been issued on April 4, 1928, recorded in Deed Book 124 at Page 93; that Honour Coal Company ceased to do business many years prior to the death of E. C. Honour; that E. C. Honour was the sole stockholder in said corporation at the time of his death, with the possible exception of his son, Theodore A. Honour; that T. A. Honour formerly owned some stock in said Corporation but by his will devised all of his stock to his son, E. C. Honour, and his grandson, Theodore A. Honour, and to one daughter Nelle Honour; that Nell Honour died intestate and all property which she owned vested in her only brother, E. C. Honour, now deceased.

That at the time of his death in 1960, E. C. Honour left as his sole heirs at law his wife, Ada Findley Honour, and one son, Theodore A. Honour; that to deponent's knowledge E. C. Honour treated the property hereinafter referred to as his property, collected the rents, paid taxes, etc., and while

(CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE)