A G R E E M E N T

This agreement providing for a final lump sum settlement of all rights of support and maintenance and property interest between Carrie S. Stiller, wife, and Paul V. Stiller, husband, is made and entered into this 3rd day of Aug, 1964.

These parties were married on September 15, 1961 at Greenville, South Carolina, but since that time have encountered strife and difficulties in their marital relationship and are now, and have been for some time, living separate and apart. It is further their announced intention to remain separate and apart during the remainder of their natural lives and recognizing this they do now agree to settle matters finally between themselves.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of these articles of settlement and compromise hereinafter set forth, it is agreed as follows:

1. That the said husband shall pay to the wife upon the signing of this agreement the sum of SIX HUNDRED FIFTY AND NO/100 ($650.00) Dollars.
2. Neither of them, the husband and wife, shall molest the other of them, or compel, or endeavor to compel, the other of them to cohabit or dwell with him or her by any legal proceeding for restitution of conjugal rights.
3. Each of them, the husband and wife, shall consider himself, or herself, free from all marital obligations each to the other except as hereinafter specified.
4. (A) That this property settlement is in lieu of all other rights, claims or liabilities of either against the other as to the estate of the other and is a full and complete settlement of such rights, claims or liabilities which may now exist or which may arise after the death of either party to this agreement; and the wife does hereby re-
