And, WHEREAS, it now appears that during the years in which said deeds of conveyance were made by W.E. Dill to the purchasers named above he had not been discharged from the Order of Commitment to the State Hospital and was not declared competent until June 4, 1935; and since the question arises as to his mental condition when these deeds of conveyance were executed, we, the undersigned, his only heirs at law, desire to remove any question regarding the ability of the said W.E. Dill to sell the property and to execute the deeds therefor to the respective purchasers, and for that purpose,

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS That we, Mabel D. Hodgens, Lillian D. Skinner, Marie D. Wood, Catherine D. Tarpley, Dawson W. Dill and Brooks J. Dill, hereby assert that the said W.E. Dill was mentally competent to transact business and manage his farming interests from the time he was released from the State Hospital on August 21, 1924, until August, 1931 and we do hereby confirm the sales and deeds of conveyance made upon the dates and to the persons stated above, and by this instrument waive and relinquish any claim, right or title to the property described therein unto the grantees named, their respective successors in title and the present owners of the same.
