

As a means of accomplishing the foregoing purposes, but without in any way limiting or intending to limit such general purposes by any of the specific powers hereinafter referred to, said corporation shall have the power:

(a) To take and hold by gift, bequest, devise or purchase, either absolutely or in trust for any of the foregoing purposes, any property, real or personal, and to sell, exchange, transfer or convey such property (subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law), and to invest and reinvest the same, and to apply the income and principal of such property or any accretion thereto as it may have at its disposal, in furtherance of any of its objects and purposes;

(b) To enter into, make, perform and carry out contracts of every form or kind, for any of its corporate purposes, without limitation as to amount, with any person, firm, association or corporation;

(c) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, warrants and other negotiable or transferable instruments, in furtherance of any of its corporate purposes.

(d) To issue bonds, debentures, or obligations of this corporation from time to time, for any of the objects or purposes of this corporation, and to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or otherwise;

(e) To have one or more offices, and to exercise any or all of its corporate powers in the State of South Carolina, and in the various other states of the United States and in the District of Columbia, and in general, to have, except as herein provided, all powers conferred upon a corporation, not for profit and not authorized to issue capital stock, organized for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or education purposes under the laws of the State of South Carolina.

(f) To do any and all such acts as are necessary or conducive to the attainment of any of the objects and purposes herein set forth; to the same extent and as fully as any natural person might or could do; provided, however, that, notwithstanding any provision of this charter or any provision of applicable state law, the corporation shall not have the power to conduct a regular business of a kind ordinarily carried on for profit or have any power the existence of which would cause it to fail to qualify as an organization exempt from tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any subsequent Revenue Act.

2-2