This is the same property conveyed to T. L. Davis by deed recorded in the R.M.C. Office for Greenville County, in deed book 288, page 223. The said T. L. Davis died intestate, surviving by his widow, Mary P. Davis and his children, Mary Louise D. Jones, Caroline D. Hill, Ansel S. Davis, Thomas J. Davis, Charles L. Davis, and M. L. Davis. The said Mary P. Davis, Mary Louise D. Jones, and Carolina D. Hill have conveyed by deed dated March 19, 1966, all of their interests and expectancy in said property to the Seller, M. L. Davis. The above Ansel S. Davis is confined in Whitten Village and is Non Compus Mentis. The conveyance by the daughters and widow above referred to was made to enable M. L. Davis and Charles and Thomas Davis to raise money from the above described property for the support of Mary P. Davis and Ansel S. Davis. The Sellers hereby agree that the funds received from this sale shall be held by them for the sole use of Mary P. Davis and Ansel S. Davis, during the term of their joint lives and that no personal division of said proceeds shall be made until the deaths of Mary P. and Ansel S. Davis. They further agree and assume liability for the improper or disposition of any property or proceeds to which Ansel S. Davis may be entitled.
