

fact of the appointment and delivered to the successor trustee. No notice to the grantor shall be required in order to make the resignation of the trustee and the appointment of the successor valid.

V.

ADDITIONS

The grantor reserves the right to herself or to any other person at any time, by deed or will, to add to the principal of the trust estate created herein and any property so added shall be held, administered and distributed under the terms of this trust agreement.

VI.

SPENDTHRIFT PROVISION

The grantor shall have no right to alienate, encumber, or hypothecate her interest in the principal or income of the trust estate in any manner, nor shall her interest in the trust be subject to claims of her creditors or liable to attachment, execution or other process of law.

VII.

The trustee may make reasonable charges for his services, and deduct the same from the income or principal of this trust. In the event a bank or other corporate trustee is appointed, the trustee making such appointment of a successor may enter into an agreement concerning compensation and commissions, and such agreement shall be binding upon the trust and the grantor, and the trust shall be liable to such corporate successor trustee for the commissions and fees agreed upon.

VIII.

BOND AND LIABILITY

The trustee shall not be required to give any bond or other
