Appellant.)

This matter comes before me by petition of the attorneys representing the respective parties.

It appears that there has been a condemnation instituted on certain property belonging to the appellant which is located at the intersection of Pendleton and Willis Streets in the City of Greenville. This condemnation involves part of what is known as the Academy Street project. Under this project, Academy Street will intersect with Pendleton Street just beyond where Willis Street formerly entered Pendleton Street. Under the South Carolina Highway Department plans, Willis Street will now be closed and a curbing will be put around it to block it from Pendleton Street and from Academy Street. These are shown on highway plans known as file 23.540, project U-2627(2), part 2, sheets 22 and 26. The effect of this relocation of Pendleton Street as it intersects with the new Academy Street will cause Willis Street to be a dead end street from Academy Street to Pendleton Street and completely blocked off except by an entrance from
