

It is understood and agreed that this disposition of the estate of Elizabeth D. Zimmerman is a settlement between the parties hereto by way of compromise. It being the intentions of the Grantors to convey to the Grantees as Trustees all right, title and interest in and to all of the property, real, personal or mixed, which Elizabeth D. Zimmerman was vested with at the time of her death, except land in Newberry County, S. C.

AND the Grantors do hereby bind the Grantors and their heirs, executors and administrators to warrant and forever defend all and singular the said premises unto the Grantees herein above named, and the Trantees' Successors and Assigns against the Grantors and their heirs and against every person whomsoever lawfully claiming or to claim the same or any part thereof.

WITNESS the Grantors hands and seals, this 12th day of June, 1967.
