

children of said testator to take the interest of a deceased parent; and

WHEREAS, the Trustor contemplates marriage shortly and her removal from Augusta to become a resident of the State of Virginia, and is desirous of establishing a trust for the benefit of herself to cover and include her entire remainder interest in said estate and the property composing the same, so that she may be relieved of business worries, may have the benefit of the business ability and experience of the Trustee in the management of the property composing said estate during the life of this trust, may be assured of the proper handling of said trust property upon its delivery to said Trustee, so as to stabilize as nearly as practicable the income available for her use therefrom, as well as having said Trustee determine the ultimate beneficiaries of said trust and deliver said trust property to them after the death of the Trustor, and, in furtherance of these purposes, has this day and simultaneously herewith transferred, conveyed, and assigned, with full warranty of title, to the Trustee named, all her said interest in the estate of her father, Harry H. Jones, under the terms of said Will above referred to; and

WHEREAS, the Trustee has accepted said transfer and conveyance of said property in trust as aforesaid, and in consideration thereof, as well as other considerations moving between the parties, hereby covenants and agrees to fully perform the duties imposed upon it by this trust agreement in accordance with the terms and provisions hereof:

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto, in consideration of
