STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA AFFIDAVIT COUNTY OF GREENVILLE

Personally appeared before me Homer Styles who, on oath, says that he is a citizen and resident of the County and State aforesaid residing near Travelers Rest, South Carolina, where he has spent most of his life.

That deponent was well acquainted with the family of Judge L. Glenn who resided in the same community and who has been dead for a number of years. That in addition to his heirs surviving him at the time of his death, the said Judge L. Glenn had another son, Judge L. Glenn, Jr., who died while he was still in his teens. The said Judge L. Glenn, Jr. was never married and had no children. His sole heirs at law and distributees were his mother, father, and the brothers and sisters as listed in the estate file of Judge L. Glenn in the Office of the Probate Court for Greenville County. His death occurred in the late 1930's.

That deponent is no way related to the Glenn family.
