PERSONALLY appeared before me SUSIE MARY WATSON ALTOM, who, being duly sworn, states that the following information is true and correct to her best knowledge:

That R. F. WATSON was the brother of Lynn Walker Watson and the Uncle of Susie Altom.

That L. W. WATSON, better known as L. WALKER WATSON was the father of Susie Mary Watson Altom.

That L. W. or L. Walker Watson got the 25 acres of land from his sister, Maria L. Watson and later got 2½ acres from his sister, Mary Eliza Watson, making a total of 27½ acres which is the property in question.

When L. Walker Watson died around March 1920, he left surviving him, the following:

NANNIE WATSON, his widow and the following children:

ROBERT YOUNG WATSON, now deceased, left no children and his wife died in California.

BAILEY THOMAS WATSON, now deceased, never married.

SUSIE MARY WATSON ALTOM, age 84 years - living.

JAMES W. WATSON, now deceased, never married.

VIOLA AMELIA WATSON, now deceased, never married.

REUBEN J. WATSON, now deceased, no children.

Dorothy W. Douglas, now living.
