This is the same property conveyed to B. B. Edwards by deeds of J. R. Putman (Vol. 9. Page 525) and of Mrs. Elizabeth Kellett (Vol. 17. Page 195, R.M.C. Office for Greenville County, S.C.). The said B. B. Edwards deeded the property to Alberta D. Edwards, Trustee, said deed duly recorded in the R.M.C. Office for Greenville County, S.C., wherein Douglas Carson Edwards and J. Albert Edwards each acquired a one-third undivided interest in the land herein being conveyed; George B. Edwards, now deceased, acquired the remaining one-third undivided interest, and he devised a one-half undivided interest of his portion to his wife, Virginia W. Edwards, and the other one-half to his three children, viz., Virginia Edwards Smith; George B. Edwards, Jr.; and Ward Winslow Edwards, a minor. As to the interest of the said Ward, Winslow Edwards, see Greenville County Court record under date of August 20, 1970, order signed by the Honorable James H. Price, Jr.
