

WHEREAS, the aforesaid tract owned by W. R. Faulkner lies adjacent to the southwesterly boundaries of the aforesaid tract owned by Mobil Oil Corporation and the said W. R. Faulkner has made use of a portion of the adjoining Mobil Oil tract for gardening purposes;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of Ten ($10.00) Dollars each paid to the other, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, it is understood and agreed that any use being made by the said W. R. Faulkner of the premises of Mobil Oil Corporation, described hereinabove is entirely permissive; that through this use the said W. R. Faulkner claims no interest in the premises of Mobil Oil Corporation described hereinabove and that the past, present and future use of these premises, if any, has been, is or will be by and with the consent and permission of Mobil Oil Corporation.

The terms and provisions hereof shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their heirs and assigns.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, W. R. Faulkner has hereunto set his hand and seal and Mobil Oil Corporation has caused its corporate seal to be hereunto affixed and these presents to be subscribed by its duly authorized officers the day and year aforesaid.

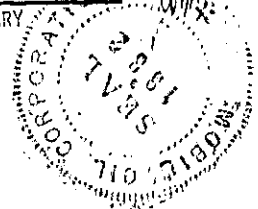

In the Presence of:

T. G. Massey
M. Burnett
As to W. R. Faulkner

W. R. Faulkner
W. R. Faulkner

D. V. S. JACKSON
Hannah A. Burke
As to Mobil Oil Corporation
Hannah A. Burke

MOBIL OIL CORPORATION
BY: F. M. Woods
VICE PRESIDENT
AND: G. D. Frost
ASST. SECRETARY

(Continued on Next Page)