

Page 6

contained shall be held to affect the rights herein given to enforce the collection of such charges accruing after foreclosure of any such lien.

14. The sidewalks, alleys, parking areas and streets on said property (except for Cleveland Court which has been or will be conveyed or dedicated for public use) are not intended for public or municipal control, but are intended for private use and are, and shall remain, the sole and exclusive property of the present and future owners, their heirs and assigns, and shall be controlled, improved, graded and maintained at their expense and regulated by them for their own benefit and the common use and enjoyment of the owners and lessees of said lots, their heirs and assigns, forever. Said expenses of maintenance shall be prorated as provided in paragraph 13 above. There are hereby reserved mutual easements and rights of way for ingress and egress and parking through, on and across the lots for the benefit of the present and future owners and lessees, their patients, clients and customers. Nothing herein, however, shall prevent an owner or lessee from making changes or improvements in his property so long as consistent with the other provisions of these covenants.

15. The restrictions, rights, conditions and covenants contained herein may be amended, changed or altered by a vote of the owners of ninety (90) per cent of the total areas of property covered hereby, excluding streets, sidewalks, driveways and parking areas. For purposes of this paragraph, a lessee of property covered by these provisions shall be deemed the owner thereof, if entitled to its use and enjoyment.

16. If any of the parties hereto or their heirs, successors or assigns, or any other person or persons shall violate or attempt to violate any of the rights, restrictions, conditions or covenants herein

(Continued on next page) --