

(h) To invest and reinvest without restriction any of my money or other property of whatever kind coming into his possession, whether income or principal, in such a manner as he may deem fit and proper, in his sole discretion.

(i) To execute and deliver any and all deeds or other instruments of whatever kind that may be useful or necessary to carry out any of the powers and authority granted in any portion of this power of attorney.

(j) To make such arrangements, and pay or expend for my benefit such amount of income or principal as he determines, in his sole discretion, as are reasonable to provide for my suitable maintenance, support, comfort, health and welfare, and to allow such members of my family, as he determines to use my personal effects and household furniture, and to store the same, or to sell and dispose of the same. All of the above powers are to be exercised as determined, in his sole discretion.

(k) To effect all transactions in his name as attorney in fact, in my name, or in the name of any nominee of the attorney in fact.

(l) All investment and reinvestments shall be made for such purposes as my attorney in fact may, from time to time, deem to be in my best interest.

(m) I hereby give and grant unto my attorney in fact full power and authority to do and perform each and every act and thing whatsoever requisite and necessary to be done in and about the premises as to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, hereby ratifying and confirming all that my attorney in fact shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue hereunder.

2. No firms, corporations or agencies, governmental or otherwise, which shall pay money or deliver property of whatever kind to my said attorney in fact shall be under any obligation whatever to look to the disposition of such money or property by said attorney in fact.

3. This power of attorney is executed pursuant to the provisions of North Carolina General Statutes §47-115.1, and it is
