

as are required in this Declaration or attempts to make or does make any structural addition or alteration without the written consent of the Association or in making the same damages any other unit or the general common elements or limited common elements or threatens to do so or otherwise violates the Declaration and By-Laws of the Association, the Association shall have the right to proceed in any Court of Equity to seek injunctive relief or to otherwise proceed to seek damages for any injury thereby caused. The Association shall further have the right to levy an assessment on any unit and/or owner thereof for the cost and expense of repairs or replacement within an individual unit for which the owner is responsible but refuses to make and for any damages caused by a unit owner as specified above. Any such assessment shall be deemed to be a lien as conferred by Section 57-514 of the 1962 Code of Laws of South Carolina, as amended.

5. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed so as to impose personal liability upon any member of the Board of Directors for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any unit or general common element or limited common element or to give rise to a cause of action against them. Further, the Board of Directors shall not be liable for damages of any kind except for wilful misconduct or bad faith.

ARTICLE V

ALTERATIONS OR ADDITIONS

1. There shall be no alterations or additions to the general common elements or to the limited common elements except as authorized by the Board of Directors, provided that the alterations or additions do not prejudice the right of any unit owner unless his written consent has been obtained. The cost of alterations or additions to the general common elements or limited common elements shall be assessed as common expenses, except where the same are undertaken or made primarily for the benefit of one or more unit owners requesting the same in which event the cost of
