

8. Trustee's Authority and Third Parties. No person purchasing, renting, or leasing any of the property of the trusts, or in any manner dealing with the trusts or with the Trustee, shall be required to inquire into the authority of the Trustee to enter into any transaction, or to account for the application of any monies paid to Trustee on any account.

9. Additional Property. The Grantors each reserve the right to himself or herself or to any other person at any time, by deed or will, to add to the corpus of any or all of the trusts herein created, and any property so added shall be held, administered, and distributed as part of such trust or trusts. Such additional property shall be allocated between the trusts in accordance with any directions given in the instrument of transfer.

10. Accounting by Trustee. The Trustee may render an accounting at any time to the Primary Beneficiary of any trust created herein, and the written approval of a Primary Beneficiary shall be final, binding and conclusive upon all persons then or thereafter interested in the trust for that beneficiary. The Trustee may at any time render a judicial account of his proceedings for any or all of the trusts.

11. Compensation of Trustee. The Trustee hereby waives the payment of any compensation for his services hereunder, but this waiver shall not apply to any successor trustee who
