

All accumulated income not paid over by the Trustee at the termination of a trust shall be paid over to the Primary Beneficiary. The Trustee, by written document hereinafter more fully described, may release his discretionary power to distribute the income and corpus among the Primary Beneficiaries and to accumulate the income of a trust. Whereupon, the net income with respect to which such discretion has been released shall thereafter be distributed from time to time, but not less frequently than quarterly, to or for the benefit of each Primary Beneficiary of each trust held for his or her benefit.

(b) The Trustee shall distribute one-quarter (1/4) of the trust corpus to the Primary Beneficiary when such beneficiary attains thirty (30) years of age; one-third (1/3) of the then remaining trust corpus to the Primary Beneficiary when such beneficiary attains forty (40) years of age, one-half (1/2) of the then remaining trust corpus to the Primary Beneficiary when such beneficiary attains the age of fifty (50), and final distribution of the corpus to the Primary Beneficiary when such beneficiary attains the age of sixty (60).

(c) In the event of the death of a Primary Beneficiary before the final distribution of the corpus to him or to her, that trust shall terminate as to such deceased Primary Beneficiary and the corpus shall be distributed to
