ITEM IX.

No person dealing with the TRUSTEE need inquire concerning the validity of any actions taken by the TRUSTEE, or need to see to the application of any money paid or any property transferred to or upon the order of, the TRUSTEE.

If any income from this trust shall become distributable to a minor, the Trustee may, in her absolute discretion, either pay over such income at any time to the guardian of the property of such minor, or retain the same for such minor during minority. In case of such retention, the Trustee may apply such income to the support and education of such minor, and, in such case, may do so irrespective of any other resources of such minor or of his or her parent, either directly or by payments to the guardian of the property or parent of such minor, in any case without requiring any bond, and the receipt of any such person shall be a full discharge to the TRUSTEE, who shall not be bound to see to the application of any such payment. Any income so retained, and any income therefrom which is not applied under the provisions of this Item, shall be paid over to such beneficiary upon attaining majority, or, if he or she shall sooner die, to his or her estate. In holding any income for any minor, the Trustee shall have all the powers and discretion herein conferred upon him.
