

(5) This Trust shall continue until such time as all of the abovedescribed real estate is sold; but in no event shall it continue beyond twenty (20) years after the death of the last survivor among the Grantors.

(6) After the payment of all indebtedness and expenses of maintaining the property and administering the Trust, including provision for proper reserves in connection therewith, if there is any income remaining in the hands of the Trustees, they shall distribute the same proportionately among the Grantors in accordance with the beneficial interest of each. Such distributions shall be made at least quarterly.

(7) In case a vacancy or vacancies shall for any reason exist among the Trustees, the Trustees or Trustee remaining shall fill such vacancy or vacancies by appointing such other person or persons as such Trustees or Trustee shall see fit. Any such appointment shall be accepted in writing. In case no Trustee shall remain to act, then the owners of more than seventy-five (75%) percent of the beneficial interest of the Trust shall within sixty (60) days after such vacancy occurs, by instrument in writing, appoint successor trustees. Should such beneficiaries fail or refuse within such sixty (60) days so to appoint successor trustees, then such trustees may be appointed by the Judge of the Greenville County Court, upon application by any beneficiary hereunder or upon application of any predecessor trustee or his personal representative.

(8) Any Grantor may assign and transfer his beneficial interest in this Trust, but no such assignment or transfer shall be binding upon the Trustees until they have been duly notified by furnishing them the original or certified copy of the written instrument by which such assignment or transfer was made. Any such assignment made by any Grantor shall not relieve such Grantor from liability on any note or notes executed by such grantor.
