SECTION FOUR ADDITIONS TO TRUST

In Trustee's discretion, Trustee may accept additions to the trust estate from any source, provided that all such additions shall be irrevocable.

SECTION FIVE
MANNER OF DISTRIBUTION

Trustee, in its sole discretion, may make payments or distributions under the terms of this trust to or for the benefit of beneficiary in any one or more of the following ways:

- (a) To beneficiary directly.
- (b) To the natural guardian or legally appointed guardian or conservator of the person or estate of beneficiary.
- (c) To make expenditures directly for the benefit of beneficiary.

Trustee shall not be required to administer the application of any funds paid or applied in any of the aforementioned ways, and Trustee's decision as to which of the aforementioned methods should be used in making payments and distributions shall be conclusive and binding on all parties concerned.

SECTION SIX
POWERS OF TRUSTEE

By way of illustration and not of limitation and in addition to any inherent, implied or statutory powers granted to trustees generally, the Trustee is specifically authorized and empowered: to allot, assign, buy, care for, collect, contract with respect to, operate any business of the trust estate, convey, convert, deal
