

10. All funds of the partnership shall be deposited in its name in such checking account or accounts as shall be designated by the partners.

11. The partnership may be dissolved at any time by one partner serving notice upon the other partners that he desires the partnership to be dissolved, in which event, the partners shall proceed with reasonable promptness to liquidate the business of the partnership. Withdrawal of a partner from the partnership business shall also require the partners to proceed with reasonable promptness to liquidate the business of the partnership. The partnership name shall be dissolved without being an asset to the business. Assets to the partnership shall be used and distributed in the following order:

(a) To pay or provide for payment of all partnership liabilities and liquidating expenses and obligations.

(b) To equalize the income accounts of all partners.

(c) To discharge the balance of the income accounts of the partners.

(d) To equalize the capital accounts of the partners.

(e) To discharge the balance of the capital accounts of the partners.

12. Upon the death or judicial determination of insanity or bankruptcy of any partner, the surviving partners shall dissolve, windup, terminate and liquidate the partnership business. The surviving partners and the legal representative of the departing partner shall share equally in the profits and losses of the business during the period of liquidation, except that the departing partner's estate shall not be liable for losses in excess of the departing partner's interest in the partnership at the time of his death. No compensation shall be paid to the surviving partners for their services in liquidation. Distribution of the assets of the partnership shall be the same as
