

beneficiary. Any income so accumulated shall become a part of the corpus of the trust and be disposed of in the same manner as in cases of death of beneficiaries.

CONTINUATION OF TRUST AS TO MINORS

If any part of this trust shall become vested in absolute ownership in a minor or minors, or if at the termination of this trust all or a portion of the principal of such trust shall vest in absolute ownership in a minor, I authorize and empower my Trustee in his sole and absolute discretion either to pay over such principal or income therefrom to such minor or to hold the property so vested in such minor, or any part thereof, in a separate fund for the benefit of such minor, notwithstanding that such property may consist of investments not authorized by law for trust funds, and to invest and reinvest the same, collect the income therefrom and during the minority of such minor to apply so much of the principal and so much of the net income therefrom and any accumulated income to the support, education and maintenance of said minor as my Trustee shall see fit, and to accumulate, invest and reinvest the balance of said income until such minor shall attain the age of 21 years, and thereupon to pay over the then principal, together with any accumulated income, to such minor, and if such minor shall die before attaining the age of 21 years, the then principal together with any accumulated income, shall be paid over to the estate of such minor. Any such payments or applications of principal, or income therefrom, may be made directly to such minor, if over the age of fourteen years, or to any parent with whom such minor may be residing, or to the guardian of the property of such minor, or to any person, firm or corporation furnishing goods, services or instructions to such minor, in any case without requiring bond, and the receipt of any such person shall be a full acquittal and discharge of Trustee to the extent of the payments so made.

Any such payments which shall be made to persons, other than parent or guardian, furnishing goods or services to such minor, shall not exceed the reasonable value of such goods or services claimed to have been furnished as evidenced by voucher,
