

by the board of directors. The initial officers and the manner of filling vacancies of the initial officers shall be as set forth in Article VII of the Constitution of the Association and they shall serve as provided for therein.

THE PRESIDENT

31. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the Association; he shall preside at all meetings of the members and directors, shall be ex-officio member of all standing committees, shall have general and active management of the business of the Association, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the board are carried into effect.

32. The president shall execute all documents and contracts requiring a seal, except where the same are required or permitted by law to be otherwise signed and executed and except where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the board of directors to some other officer or agent of the Association.

THE VICE PRESIDENTS

33. The vice presidents in the order of their seniority shall, in the absence or disability of the president, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the president, and shall perform such other duties as the board of directors shall prescribe.

THE SECRETARY-TREASURER AND ASSISTANTS

34. The secretary shall attend all sessions of the board and all meetings of the members and record all votes and the minutes of all proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose and shall perform like duties for the standing committees when required. He shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the members and special meetings of the board of directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors or president, under whose supervision
