

16. In general to do all other acts, deeds, matters, and things whatsoever in or about my estate, property, and affairs or to concur with persons jointly interested with myself therein in doing all acts, deeds, matters, and things herein, either particularly or generally described, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as I could do in my own proper person if personally present.

17. And I, the said R. M. Caine, hereby ratify and confirm and promise at all times to ratify and confirm all and whatsoever my attorney, the said Frank B. Halter shall lawfully do or cause to be done in and about the premises by virtue of these presents, including anything which shall be done between the revocation of these presents by my death or in any other manner and notice of such revocation reaching my attorney; and I hereby declare that as against me and all persons claiming under me everything which my attorney shall do or cause to be done in pursuance hereof after such revocation as aforesaid shall be valid and effectual in favor of any person claiming the benefit thereof who before the doing thereof shall not have had notice of such revocation.

This Power of Attorney shall be revoked by death or revocation by me in writing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 10th day of April, 1980.
