

owners in Eastside Professional Court to the common elements and areas included in said development. Said language was originated for inclusion in all deeds to parcel owners by with they acquired their percentage interest in the designated common areas and elements of Eastside Professional Court; however, this paragraph was mistakenly included in the deed by which William Alan Ivester acquired his fee simple title to Parcel B. The purpose of this corrective deed is to remove any cloud that said language may have created on the title to Parcel B owned by William Alan Ivester.
