

children so much of the principal of her respective share and as my Trustees shall deem advisable for her proper health, maintenance and support, taking into consideration all other income available to such child for such purposes from all sources known to my Trustees.

(3) In the event either child of mine dies during the separate trust herein created for her benefit, my Trustees shall pay and distribute the remaining principal of her share of the trust to her then living issue, absolutely and free of trust, subject, however, to the minority provisions hereinafter set forth. In default of issue of such deceased child of mine then surviving, such share shall be paid and distributed to my other child named herein, or her then living issue, per stirpes and absolutely, subject, however, to the minority provisions hereinafter set forth; provided, however, any portion of such share, which otherwise would be distributable to any beneficiary for whom a share is then held for his or her benefit, shall be added to such share to be held as though an original part thereof.

(4) If any beneficiary who is entitled to receive a share of the principal of the Trust shall be a minor, my Trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to continue to hold and manage such share for the benefit of such minor during his or her minority, and my Trustees may accumulate all or any part of the income from such minor's share or pay so much thereof, together with such amounts of the principal of his or her share of the Trust as they shall deem proper for his or her health, maintenance, support and complete education. In the disbursement of funds directed to be paid to or for the use and benefit of any beneficiary who shall be a minor, my Trustees may make payments of the same to the parent, guardian or such other person as may have custody of the person of the minor at the time such payments are made, to be used for the health, maintenance, support and complete education of such minor, but without liability on the part of my Trustees to see to the application of said payments by the payee, and the receipt of any such person shall be a full acquittance of my Trustees as to any amounts so paid, or my Trustees may make payment of the same directly to or for the benefit of such minor beneficiary. This shall be construed as a power only and shall not operate to suspend the absolute ownership thereof by such minor nor to prevent the absolute vesting

BORNSTEIN, PETREE,
BROOKS, COOPER
& MARKS
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW
125 S. CLAYTON ST.
DUBLINO, ILLINOIS

35 45117
35 45117

0034

4328 RVZ