June 29, 1983

A meeting of the Mount Emanuel Baptist Church Family was called to order by the Pastor, Rev. David L. Hellams at 7:40 p.m., on the aboved date. Open with a prayer by Rev. Hellams, he also presided. Stating the purpose of the meeting. Reference to the Mt. Emanuel Baptist Church Property on Dogan's Street, that were donated to the church by Mrs. Marion Bellune, in honor of the late Deacon Lucious Brown, to be sold for the purchasing of a Baptizing Pool for the church, or any others expenses of the church.

The Pastor, Deacons, and Trustees have had three (3) previous meeting to discuss the proposed prior to bringing it to the body. The Pastor, stated that he had received a REGISTERED LETTER from the City of Greenville, informing him that either the property had to be brought up to standard to meet the City Code, or demolish, within Ninety (90) days, if not other action would be taken. Since the church do not have the money to renovate the house for the used of the church, and we have two (2) prospects that would like to purchase the property, a motion was put before the body.

Deacon James Brown, Chairman of Deacons, made a motion that we sell the property for the said price of Two thousand, seven hundred ($2,700.00) dollars plus all closing charges, stamps, and etc., to be paid by the Vendor who pruchased the property from Mt. Emanuel Baptist Church. The motion was met with a second by Deacon John Garrett. All present voted for the referendu.

The meeting adjourn with a prayer by Rev. Hellams.
