PRE-NUPTIAL AGREEMENT

This mutual agreement is entered into this 7th day of October, 1983, by and between Timothy Lane Spargo and Cheryl Elaine Robertson.

We are desirous of entering into a matrimonial relationship but do not desire to acquire any rights or obligations with respect to property, income or support that might otherwise accrue to either of us by reason of this union.

We therefore give these, our mutual releases, each to the other. We hereby waive any and all rights or interest in the property or income of the other that might in any manner arise by reason of our matrimony or the rendition of services one to the other. We specifically waive any and all rights, additionally, to alimony, support and maintenance that may arise in any manner from our association.

It is hereby agreed that we shall live as man and wife in a state of matrimony subject to the following terms:

- 1.) That we shall remain to have separate checking accounts and we shall not have any access by no means to the other parties account;
- 2.) That in case of a divorce the fee for an uncontested divorce shall be divided equally;
- 3.) All property listed on the pages attached hereto and that are made a part of this agreement by this reference, and are signed by both parties, is the separate property owned by the one under whose name it is listed prior to this agreement. All listed property is and shall continue to be the separate property of the party now owning it be he/she living or dead;
- 4.) All property received by either of us by gift or inheritance during the duration of our marriage shall be the separate property of the one so receiving it;
