

the By-Laws, or Rules and Regulations of the Association, the Association and the Board of Directors shall have each and all of the rights and remedies which may be provided for in said Act (except as limited in the Master Deed or By-Laws), the Master Deed, the By-Laws or said Rules and Regulations or which may be available at law or in equity, and may prosecute any action or other proceedings against such defaulting party and/or others for enforcement of any lien, statutory or otherwise, including foreclosure of such lien and the appointment of a receiver for the Office and ownership interest of such Owner, or for damages or injunction or specific performance or for judgment for payment of money and collection thereof, or for any combination of remedies, or any other relief. All expenses of the Association in connection with any such actions or proceedings, including court costs and attorneys' fees and other fees and expenses, and all damages, liquidated or otherwise, together with interest thereon at the highest rate permissible under applicable laws, until paid, shall be charged to and assessed against such defaulting Office Owner and shall be added to and deemed part of his assessment, collectable by the Association as hereinabove provided. In the event of any such default by any Office Owner, the Association shall have the authority to correct such default, and to do whatever may be necessary for such purpose, and all expenses in connection therewith shall be charged to and assessed against such defaulting Office Owner. Any and all of such rights and remedies may be exercised at any time and from time to time, cumulatively or otherwise, by the Association or its Board of Directors.

XVI.

COMMON SURPLUS

"Common Surplus" meaning all funds and other assets of the Association (including excess of receipts of Association, including but not limited to assessments, rents, profits and revenues from whatever source whatsoever, over amount of the Common Expense), shall
