XVIII. TERMINATION. The condominium shall be terminated, and the property removed from the provisions of the Act, in the following manner:

A. The termination of the condominium may be effected by unanimous agreement of the residence owners, with the unanimous vote of all eligible mortgagees, provided to an eligible holder, a first mortgagee must request notice as provided in Paragraph XXIII, which agreement shall be evidenced by an instrument or instruments executed in the manner required for conveyances of land. The termination shall become effective when such agreement has been recorded in the RMC Office for Greenville County, South Carolina.

B. In the event it is determined in the manner provided in this Declaration that the condominium property shall not be reconstructed after casualty, the condominium will be terminated and the condominium documents revoked, unless the Act shall have been amended to allow continuation of the condominium in such circumstances and corresponding amendments to this Declaration shall have been effected. The determination not to reconstruct after casualty resulting in termination of the condominium shall be evidenced by a certificate as to facts effecting the termination, which certificate shall become effective upon being recorded in the RMC Office for Greenville County, South Carolina.

C. After termination of the condominium the rights of the
