

of these events, Class A members shall be entitled to vote only on (1) any proposal to change the method of calculating the maximum amount of the annual assessments to be levied by The Association, (2) any proposal that a special assessment be levied by The Association except as otherwise specifically provided, (3) any proposal of merger, consolidation or dissolution, and (4) any proposal to amend this Declaration or the Articles of Incorporation of The Association, if any. When entitled to vote, Class A members shall be entitled to one vote for each lot in which they hold any interest required for membership by Section 1 of this Article III. When more than one person holds such interest or interests in any lots, the vote for such lot shall be exercised as they among themselves determine, but in no event shall more than one vote be cast with respect to any such lot. In the event of disagreement among such persons and an attempt by two or more of them to cast the vote of such lot, such persons shall not be recognized and the vote of such lot shall not be counted.

(b) Class B. The Developer shall be the sole Class B member. Class B membership shall be a full voting membership, and during its existence, the Class B member or members shall be entitled to vote on all matters and all events. The Class B member or members shall be entitled to one vote for each lot in which it or they hold any interest required for membership by Section 1 of this Article III. At such time as the Class A members shall be entitled to full voting privileges, the Class B membership shall automatically terminate and cease to exist, in which event the Class B member or members shall be and become a Class A member or Class A members insofar as it or they may then hold any interest required for membership by Section 1 of this Article III. From and after the date on which the Class B membership shall automatically terminate and cease to exist, such membership shall not be revived or reinstated.

Section 3. VOTING. The members shall vote pursuant to the Charter and By-Laws of The Association, as amended from time to time, or by law.

Section 4. SUSPENSION OF MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS. The Board of Directors, by simple majority vote, may suspend the rights of any member who violates any of the provisions of this Declaration, including but not limited to default in the payment of any annual or special assessment levied by The Association. In the event of such suspension, the voting rights and right to the use of The Association's properties and facilities by such member may be suspended by the Board of Directors governing the use of The Association's properties and facilities.

0379

14325 (RV-2)