(14) To eject, remove, or relieve tenants or other persons from, and recover possession of, any property, real, personal or mixed, in which I now or hereafter may have an interest;

(15) And, generally, to manage and control my property and to execute any and all instruments necessary or expedient for that purpose as I might do, if personally present;

And I, the said DOROTHY HIPPI GUNTER, do hereby ratify and confirm all acts of my said attorneys acting pursuant to the provisions of this instrument, and do declare that all such acts and deeds performed under this instrument shall have the same full force and effect as if performed and signed by me in person, and this instrument shall be effective until revoked in writing or until it shall cease by operation of law. Except for the making of gifts pursuant to Paragraph (13) above, the signatures of any two of my three aforementioned attorneys in fact shall be sufficient for all purposes hereunder and shall be considered for all intents and purposes to be of the same validity as the signatures of all three attorneys in fact, so that the signatures of all three attorneys in fact shall not be required except for the making of gifts pursuant to Paragraph (13).

It is my desire that there always be three attorneys serving under this instrument. In the event that any of my said attorneys or any successor attorney appointed hereunder should fail or cease to serve for any reason, and I am not then able to appoint a successor, the remaining attorneys serving pursuant to this instrument, or if only one is then serving, that one, shall nominate a successor, or two successors if required, to the Court of Common Pleas of Greenville County, South Carolina. That Court shall, in its discretion, confirm or reject each nominee. If a nominee is rejected, additional nominations shall be made in the manner described above until there are three attorneys serving hereunder. It is my expectation that the Court, in reviewing any nominations made hereunder, will take into account my desire that the attorneys serving hereunder will always be persons well acquainted with my needs and interests and the needs and interests of my family, and that
