(2) That it will keep the improvements now existing by heretofore or hereafter made, property insured as may be required from time to time by the Mortgagor against loss of fire and other insurable accidents specified by Mortgagor, in an amount not less than the mortgage debt, or in such amounts as may be required by the Mortgagor, which amounts shall be acceptable to it, and that all such policies and renewals thereof, shall be held by the Mortgagor and have attained thereto, shall be payable, issued in favor of, and in form acceptable to the Mortgagor, and that it will pay, all premiums thereon, whether or not the Mortgagor is the beneficiary, the proceeds of any policy insuring the mortgaged premises and does hereby authorize each insurance company concerned to make payment for a loss directly to the Mortgagor, to the extent of the balance owing on the mortgage debt, whether due or not.

(3) That it will keep all improvements now existing or hereafter erected in good repair, and, in the case of a construction loan, that it will continue construction until completion without interruption, and should it fail to do so, the Mortgagor may, at its option, enter upon said premises, make whatever repairs are necessary, including the completion of any construction work underway, and charge the expenses for such repairs or the completion of such construction to the mortgaged debt.

(4) That it will pay, when due, all taxes, public assessments, and other governmental or municipal charges, fines or other impositions against the mortgaged premises. That it will comply with all governmental and municipal laws and regulations affecting the mortgaged premises.

(6) That if there is a default in any of the terms, conditions, or covenants of this mortgage, or of the note, secured hereby, then, at the option of the Mortgagor, all sums then owing by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagor shall become immediately due and payable, and this mortgage may be foreclosed. Should any legal proceedings be instituted for the foreclosure of this mortgage, or should the Mortgagee become a party of any suit involving this Mortgage, or the title to the premises described herein, or should the debt secured hereby or any part thereof be placed in the hands of any attorney at law for collection by suit or otherwise, all costs and expenses incurred by the Mortgagee, and a reasonable attorney's fee, shall thereupon become due and payable immediately or on demand, at the option of the Mortgagee, as a part of the debt secured hereby, and may be recovered and collected hereunder.

(7) That the Mortgagor shall hold and enjoy the premises above conveyed until there is a default under this mortgage or in the notes secured hereby. It is the true meaning of this instrument that if the Mortgagor shall fully perform all the terms, conditions, and covenants of the mortgage, and of the note secured hereby, that then this mortgage shall be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
