

upon the written request of the Company, in lieu of such cancellation and delivery, cremate such Notes and deliver a certificate of such cremation to the Company.

Section 11.5. Illegal Provision. In case any one or more of the provisions herein or in the Notes contained shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision hereof, and this Indenture shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

Section 11.6. Notices. Any notice to the registered owners of Notes shall be in writing. Any notice to or request or demand upon the Trustees shall be in writing and may be given or presented, and such demand may be made, at its Corporate Trust Department, Broad and Marietta Streets, Atlanta, Georgia. Any notice to or request or demand upon the Company shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given or served for all purposes by being deposited, postage prepaid, in a post office letter box addressed to the Company at its address set forth in the first paragraph of this Indenture or at such other address as may be filed in writing by the Company with the Trustee. Whenever, pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture, notice is required to be given or sent to the registered owners of the Notes, such requirement shall be satisfied if such notice be given or sent, in the manner prescribed, to the registered owners of the Notes, at the respective addresses appearing on the Register.

Section 11.7. Waiver of Notice. Whenever in this Indenture the giving of notice is required, the giving thereof may be waived in writing by the person or persons entitled to receive such notice.
