

than 60 days prior to the redemption date in a newspaper or financial journal of general circulation published in the City of New York, New York, and in the case of the redemption of Bonds registered as to principal, upon mailing a copy of the redemption notice by first class mail at least thirty days prior to the date fixed for redemption to the holder of each such Bond to be redeemed at the address shown on the registration books; provided, however, that failure to give such notice by mailing or any defect therein, shall not affect the validity of any proceedings for the redemption of Bonds. If all of the Bonds to be redeemed are Bonds registered as to principal, notice by mailing given by first class mail to the holder or holders thereof, at the addresses shown on the registration books, not less than thirty days prior to the date fixed for redemption as aforesaid shall be sufficient and published notice of the call for redemption need not be given and failure duly to give such notice by mailing, or any defect in the notice, to the holder of any such Bond designated for redemption shall not affect the validity of any proceedings for the redemption of any other Bond. All Bonds so called for redemption will cease to bear interest on the specified redemption date, provided funds for their redemption are on deposit with the Trustee and shall no longer be protected by the Indenture and shall not be deemed to be outstanding under the provisions of the Indenture. If, because of the temporary or permanent suspension of the publication or general circulation of any newspaper or financial journal or for any other reason, it is impossible or impracticable to publish such notice of call for redemption in the manner herein provided, then such publication in lieu thereof as shall be made with the approval of the Trustee shall constitute a sufficient publication of notice.

SECTION 304. Cancellation. All Bonds which have been redeemed shall be canceled and cremated or destroyed by the Trustee together with the unmatured coupons appertaining thereto and shall
