the execution of any such request, consent or other instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent or of the holding by any person of Bonds shall be sufficient for any purpose of the Indenture and shall be conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the County if made in the manner provided hereinafter in this section.

The fact and date of the execution by any person of any such request, consent or other instrument or writing may be proved by the affidavit of a witness to such execution or by the certificate of any notary public or other officer of any jurisdiction authorized by the laws thereof to take acknowledgements of deeds, certifying that the person signing such request, consent or other instrument acknowledged to him the execution thereof. If such execution is by an officer of a corporation or association or by a member of a partnership on behalf of such corporation, association or partnership, as the case may be, such affidavit or certificate shall also constitute sufficient proof of his authority.

The amount of Bonds then transferable by delivery held by any person executing any such request, consent or other instrument or writing as a holder of Bonds, the distinguishing numbers of such Bonds held by such person, and the date of his holding the same, may be proved by a certificate executed by any trust company, bank, banker or other depository (wherever situated), showing that at the date therein mentioned such person had on deposit with such trust company, bank, banker or other depository, or exhibited to it, the Bonds therein described, or such facts may be proved by the certificate or affidavit of the person executing such request, consent or other instrument or writing as a holder of Bonds if such certificate or affidavit shall be deemed by the Trustee to be satisfactory. The Trustee and the County may conclusively assume that such ownership continues until written notice to the contrary is served upon the Trustee. The fact and the date of execution of any request, consent or other instrument and the amount and distinguishing numbers of Bonds held by the person so executing such request, consent or other instrument may also be proved in any other manner which the Trustee may deem sufficient. The Trustee may nevertheless, in its discretion, require further proof in cases where it deems further proof desirable.

The ownership of Bonds registered as to principal or fully registered shall be proved by the books of registry of such Bonds.

Any request, consent or vote of the holder of any Bond shall bind every future holder of the same Bond and the holder of every Bond issued in transfer or exchange therefor or in lieu
