If, however, the monthly payments made by the Mortgagor under (b) of paragraph 2 preceding shall not be sufficient to pay taxes and assessments and insurance premiums when due, same shall become due and payable, then the Mortgagor shall pay to the Mortgagee any amount necessary to make up the deficiency, on or before the date when payment of such taxes, assessments, or insurance premiums shall be due. If there shall be a default under any of the provisions of this mortgage resulting in a public sale of the premises covered hereby, or if the property is otherwise acquired after default, the Mortgagee shall apply, at the time of the commencement of such proceedings, or at the time the property is otherwise acquired, the balance then remaining in the funds accumulated under (b) of paragraph 2 preceding, as a credit against the amount of principal then remaining unpaid under the note secured hereby, and shall properly adjust any payments which shall have been made under (a) of paragraph 2.

If the Mortgagor fails to make any payments provided for in this note and any other payments for taxes, assessments, or the like, the Mortgagee may pay the same, and all costs of payment, interest at the rate set forth in the note secured hereby from the date of such advance, and shall be entitled to sue for the same.

All insurance shall be maintained in amounts and types acceptable to the Mortgagee and premiums therefor shall be paid by the Mortgagee and late after the third day of January, April, July, October, and December, unless acceptable to the Mortgagee.
