RENEGOTIABLE RATE NOTE RIDER

This Renegotiable Rate Note Rider (Rider) is made this 14th day of October, 1980, is attached to and is incorporated into and shall be deemed to amend and supplement a Note in the amount of $ 39,600.00 dated of even date herewith, executed by the undersigned (Borrower) to First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Greenville (Lender) secured by a Mortgage, (security instrument) dated of even date herewith.

In addition to the agreements and provisions made in said Note, Borrower and Lender further agree as follows:

Any provisions of said Note, or other such instruments executed in connection with said indebtedness which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Rider, including, but not limited to, the interest rate, monthly payment, notice to Borrower and prepayment, are hereby amended or negated to the extent necessary to conform such instruments to the provisions of this Rider.

This Rider provides, in part, for an Initial Loan Term and Renewal Loan Terms which will be automatically renewed at equal renewal intervals until the maturity date of said Note. The Initial Loan Term is that period of time from and including December 1, 1980, to and including January 31, 1984. Renewal Loan Terms are those periods of time beginning on the first day next following the end of the immediately preceding loan term and ending three calendar years later.

The final Renewal Loan Term, which may be shorter than preceding loan terms, shall be that period of time beginning on the first day next following the end of the immediately preceding loan term and ending on the maturity date of said Note.

The loan must be repaid in equal monthly installments of principal and interest during the Initial Loan Term and each Renewal Loan Term in an amount at least sufficient to amortize a loan with the same principal and at the same interest rate over the remaining term of said Note.

At least ninety (90) days before the end of the Initial Loan Term and all Renewal Loan Terms, except for the final Renewal Loan Term, the Lender must send the Borrower a Renewal Notice which states, among other things, the Renewal Interest Rate for the next Renewal Loan Term, the monthly payment based on that rate, and the beginning date the new payment is due.

The Renewal Interest Rate for a Renewal Loan Term may increase or decrease based on changes in an Index Rate. Said Index Rate reflects the contract interest rate on the purchase of previously occupied homes as computed by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and is published monthly in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board Journal as Table S.5.1. However, the Index Rate being used must reflect the most recent Index Rate made available by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board whether or not said Index has been officially published in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board Journal.

To calculate the Renewal Interest Rate for a Renewal Loan Term, the difference must be found between the latest monthly Renewal Index Rate as determined at the time the Renewal Notice is sent to the Borrower and the Original Index Rate applicable at the beginning of the Initial Loan Term, which is Twelve percent (12%). The difference found must be added to (if an increase) or be subtracted from (if a decrease) the original interest rate set forth in the Note. The result of the calculation above shall be the Renewal Interest Rate for the next Renewal Loan Term provided that the difference between said calculation and the interest rate for the current loan term and the differences between said calculation and the original interest rate set forth in the Note do not exceed the maximum interest rate limitations stated below. Should either difference exceed said maximum interest rate limitations, then the Renewal Interest Rate shall be the interest rate for the current loan term plus (if an increase) or minus (if a decrease) the maximum increase or decrease permitted below.

The maximum interest rate increase or decrease for each Renewal Loan Term is one half percent (0.5 %) per year. At no time during the term of said security instrument may the interest rate increase or decrease exceed a total of five percent (5.0 %) over or under the original interest rate of the Initial Loan Term.
