Derivation: Deed Book 770, Page 449, From Phillip N. Brownstein, Dated April 6, 1965.

If I pay the note secured by this mortgage according to its terms this mortgage will become null and void.

I will pay all taxes, liens, assessments, obligations, encumbrances and any other charges against the real estate and maintain insurance on the real estate in your favor in a form and amount satisfactory to you. You may pay any such tax, lien, assessment, obligation, encumbrance or other charge or purchase such insurance in your own name, if I fail to do so. The amount you pay will be due and payable to you on demand, will bear interest at the highest lawful rate, will be an additional lien on the real estate and may be enforced and collected in the same manner as any other obligation secured by this mortgage.

If I am in default for failure to make a required payment for 10 days or more, you may send me a notice giving me 20 days to eliminate the default. If I do not eliminate the default in the manner stated in the notice, or if I eliminate the default after you send the notice but default on a future payment by failing to pay on schedule, or if my ability to repay my loan or the condition, value or protection of your rights in the collateral securing my loan is significantly impaired, then the full amount I owe, less any charges which you have not yet earned, will become due, if you desire, without your advising me.

I will pay all expenses you incur in enforcing any security interest, including reasonable attorney's fees as permitted by law.

Each of the undersigned agrees that no extension of time or other variation of any obligation secured by this mortgage will affect any other obligations under this mortgage.

Each of the undersigned waives marital rights, homestead exemption and all other exemptions under South Carolina law.

This mortgage will extend, consolidate and renew any existing mortgage you hold against me on the real estate described above.
