Those conditions are:

- (A) Borrower gives Lender notice of sale or transfer;
(B) Lender agrees that the person qualifies under its then usual credit criteria;
(C) The person agrees to pay interest on the amount owed to Lender under the Note and under this Mortgage at whatever rate Lender requires; and
(D) The person signs an assumption agreement that is acceptable to Lender and that obligates the person to keep all of the promises and agreements made in the Note and in this Mortgage.

If the Borrower sells or transfers the Property and the conditions in A, B, C and D of this section are not satisfied, Lender may require immediate payment in full of the Note, foreclose the Mortgage, and seek any other remedy allowed by the law. However, Lender will not have the right to require immediate payment in full or any other legal remedy as a result of certain transfers. Those transfers are:

- (i) the creation of liens or other claims against the Property that are inferior to this Mortgage, such as other mortgages, materialman's liens, etc.;
(ii) a transfer of rights in household appliances, to a person who provides the Borrower with the money to buy these appliances, in order to protect that person against possible losses;
(iii) a transfer of the Property to surviving co-owners, following the death of a co-owner, when the transfer is automatic according to law; and
