Solicitation Letters for Purchase of Real Estate

There is an individual in our county sending letters to Personal Representatives. The return address on the envelope is:

Probate Courts of Greenville

If you receive a solicitation with a return address of Probate Courts of Greenville inquiring into the purchase of real estate, this letter IS NOT coming from the Greenville County Probate Court.

A photo of the envelope showing this misleading return address appears below:

Any official correspondence from the Greenville County Probate Court will be in an envelope containing the Court's complete return address and the correspondence will be on official office letterhead.
