Greenville Man Sentenced on Criminal Domestic Violence Of A High And Aggravated Nature

Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor Walt Wilkins states that SCOTT BRADY LOW, age 42, pled guilty to Criminal Domestic Violence Of A High And Aggravated Nature, and was sentenced to seven years suspended upon the service of two years in the South Carolina Department of Corrections followed by two years of probation by the Honorable Garrison Hill. SCOTT BRADY LOW will have to serve at least 50 % of the two year sentence before he/she becomes eligible for parole.

Evidence presented at the plea hearing by Assistant Solicitor Ryan Holloway established that on September 17, 2010, SCOTT BRADY LOW was driving his pick-up truck with the victim Angela Johnson as the front seat passenger. While driving down Highway 8 in Greenville County, an argument over money escalated to the point where Mr. Low slammed on his brakes to stop the truck, and Ms. Johnson then fled from the truck. An eyewitness saw Ms. Johnson run away from the truck as Mr. Low attempted to strike her with the vehicle. The witness also told the investigating deputy that Mr. Low would have struck her if she had not jumped over a guardrail to avoid being hit.
